

William Parr

A William III Monteith Bowl

Silver

London, 1701

Maker's mark of William Parr

Diameter: 27.3 cm, 10  $\frac{3}{4}$  in.

Weight: 1,617 g, 52 oz

The bowl on gadrooned pedestal foot the main with vertical fluting. The central cartouche with asymmetrical scrolls, shells and scalework to form the mantling to the roundel with engraved reverse cypher. The bail handles pendant from winged lion masks and the detachable scalloped rim with cherub heads at the high points.

Fully hallmarked on body and rim and handles.

Literature:

G. Lee, British Silver Monteith Bowls including American and European Examples, Byfleet, 1978, no. 146, p. 83